

Nicole Kroeger- Copyright 1989

A House Divided

A seed of pettiness can be planted in a community, and if left unchecked, the evil will fester and grow, eventually corrupting the whole. We have the power to pull away the ugliness that divides us, but it is a painful process that most people choose to avoid.

"Hate stirs up disputes, but love covers all kinds of transgressions." Proverbs 10:12